PETITIONING THE COURTTo issue a summons.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

- 1 Special Condition # 21: Defendant shall have no contact with the victim in person, by letter or other communication devices, audio or visual devices, or through a third party, unless authorized by the supervising officer with approval of Child Protective Services and any family court having jurisdiction over the Victim. Defendant shall not enter the premises or loiter within 1000 feet of the victim's residence or school. This conditions is subject to review by the Court after commencement of supervision in the community upon a motion by the defendant.

Supporting Evidence: Ms. Perez went to the victim's residence without permission on October 25, and November 3, 2013.

On November 4, 2013, Ms. Perez was confronted on her going to the victim's residence without permission. The defendant admitted having been over at the victim's residence about 2 weeks prior, but reported being there to see her son who also resides in the same residence as the victim. Ms. Perez denied having any contact with the victim. On November 5, 2013, the victim's foster parent called the probation office and reported Ms. Perez showed up at the residence unannounced on October 25, and November 3, 2013. Ms. Perez only noted having been at the victim's residence nearly 2 weeks prior, but failed to mentioned she had been there as recent as the previous day.
